“ Dear Grandma, you may have lost your battle with cancer, but you're still my hero. You did so much for me throughout my life, and your 99 years of accomplishments will always inspire me. I love you so very much and I'm glad you are at peace now.

Here is a little more information on her as an artist:

Vivian Gregory was born on October 30, 1914 in Rhinelander, WI. Although she spent some time in Wisconsin and Minnesota, most of her life was spent living in the beautiful Upper Peninsula of Michigan - and the beautiful scenery and foliage of the Upper Peninsula was the inspiration behind her art.

Vivian showed an interest in art early on in life. She was especially inspired by painting, and watercolors became her preferred medium. Many decades of work and dedication are exemplified in her finely detailed watercolor paintings, and she continued her craft well into her 90's. Vivian's watercolor paintings have found a home in over 30 countries worldwide.
