“ Grandpa... I know you have been watching over me since you passed away and you know all of what I've been through the last year and before then. I wish you were alive still so much has happened that I wish I had you to talk to about it all, I miss being able to call you whenever I was upset or lonely. You were always there for me and now I feel like there isn't anyone who I can express myself to in the way I could you. I miss you so much, every single day I miss you more, I wish you could be alive right now to see how happy I am with Jesse. :) I know you seen how heartbroken I was when he left a year ago, but he is back and I couldn't be happier. I just wish you were here so I could share it with you. Everyday day I wish I could see you or call you whenever something good happens... I love you so much and I always will

“ Well Grandpa.. It's close to that time of year again.. and even though we're going on 4 years.. each year is more harder than the year before.. It doesnt get easier, everything that happens still makes me wish I could pick up the phone and call :(every time i see a new bloomed flower, I think of you and the many memories we had of planting flowers together.. I miss you, I miss being able to call you when something amazing happens.. or when I feel like no one in the world understands.. :(I love you so much, and not a day goes by that I don't miss you.

“ Wally, I will miss you. You were wonderful to me when I was young. I will always remember you letting me stay with you when I had no where to go. You always took care of my best best friend and your daughter Susy and then proceeded to do the same for her daughter. You were so giving and will be missed so much. I will remember you forever and always. I love and miss you Beckie

“ TO my Dad,

I love you now and always will. I will miss stopping after work and having coffee with you, even when you had nothing to say, it was nice just being there with you. You always put Susy and I first, even when you had nothing or if it was the last dime in your pocket, if we needed it you gave it. You were always there for your family whether it was us or the grandkids. I will miss you. I will always keep you in my heart. I remember when I was a little girl every night no matter how tired you were you knelt down with me to say my prayers and then you would sing to me Daddy's Little Girl. I wish I could go back in time if just for a day and have you back. As you layed there I thought to myself I wish you could just open your eyes and get up as if you were sleeping. I know someday I will see you again and I hope that when I do you are still as proud of me as you were all these years.
