“ To the family of Wanda, there was never a time that I saw Wanda that I didn't get a hug and she hear her say with a big smile “hi cuz!!” Then she'd laugh and remind me “there is no such thing as a bad OMAN “  . Wanda was truly loved and she was always loving and kind. Her smile and laugh were infectious, and her wit was matchless.

Camping next to Shirley and Norman at Norway Lake she would often stop by, we always enjoyed hearing of her adventures and many times cringed at others but that's what made her who she was and so very lovable. You just can't make up the funny stories she had.

I have many fond memories of a weekend I spent in Crystal River, Florida with a crew of Oman ladies in a condo and pontooning the Gulf lol...and ya we laughed ...a lot!!!!

She was so very proud of her boys and spoke of how handsome they are and “her boys”

My sincere condolences to those who loved Wanda. She will be missed.

“ So sorry, Brandon and Dan, to hear about your mom's passing. Gone much too soon. May you find comfort knowing she's in the loving arms of the Lord, and reunited with family members that have went before her. Until you meet up with her again for Eternity, praying for God to give you and the rest of your family peace and strength during this difficult time. 🙏
