“ Wendy was a caring, intelligent and gentle soul. She had such an optimism about her future...after ACN. She knew she would stay in Marquette rather than move with the company because of her sons and grandson.

“ Wendy was one of a group of special friends who met monthly in Escanaba. We loved her dearly and missed her when she left on her traveling nursing trip a few years ago. We had hoped she'd make it to a meeting again soon. We're heartsick to learn of her accident. Wendy was such a dear, sweet lady. What a gift she was to the world! Our condolences to her entire family.

“ I met Wendy through a group that met in Escanaba, and was instantly struck by her warmth and openness. She fit right in, and I feel lucky to have known her. I worked with her on a couple of projects, and she was fun and enthusiastic. Then she ended up taking care of my husband and my mother at MGH, and she was a very gifted nurse. She made them feel like they were her special charges, but I think she did that for everyone she cared for. We will miss her, and I wish all who grieve her peace. I think Wendy would wish that, too. That's the kind of person she was. Kathy White
