“ My sympathy goes out to Nancy and the entire Dishaw family. During the many hours I spent at Evergreen with my father, I also had the opportunity to talk with Bill. I especially remember the last visit my brothers and I had with him last summer. He showed us his fish on the wall, and we discussed the fate of the Packers. He was truly a remarkable man who did not let his physical limitations diminish who he was. My thoughts are with you all.

“ To Nancy and the extended Dishaw family,

I was fortunate to have met Bill during the last, and difficult, years of his life at Evergreen where my father was also a resident until his death this time last year.

One couldn't help but marvel at Bill's courage and sunny demeanor during such a challenging physical and emotional struggle. I will always remember his warm smile and generous spirit. My sympathies are with all of you.
