

William Mitchell

March 7, 1921 - March 7, 2008

IRON MOUNTAIN - William H. Mitchell, 87, of Saginaw, died Friday, March 7, 2008, at the V.A. Medical Center in Iron Mountain.

He was born on Oct. 7, 1920, in Iron Mountain, the son of the late Fred and Ruth (Johnson) Mitchell.

He graduated from Iron Mountain High School in 1939. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II.

Bill lived in Saginaw for more than 50 years, where he was a car salesman.

He liked watching all sports, especially college basketball and football. Bill also enjoyed returning to the Upper Peninsula to go deer hunting.

He is survived by his daughter, Carol Ann Mitchell of Kingsford; three grandchildren, Elizabeth (Cal) Tappy, Chris (Michelle) Rexses, and Julia (Todd) Bowles; five great-grandchildren, Brock and Emily Rexses, Mercedes Tappy, and Hanna and Jack Bowles; and many nieces and nephews.

Bill was preceded in death by his brother, Donnel Mitchell and his sister, Geraldine LaPointe.

Burial will be in Cemetery Park.

Condolences to the family of William Mitchell can be expressed online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon and Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the arrangements.

“ My thoughts are with the entire family. I have great memories of Uncle Bill, he was a great guy and I loved his visits. I feel very fortunate to have grown up in such a wonderful family...I love telling my friends all the wonderful stories of Iron Mountain, MI and Spread Eagle, WI and Uncle Bill was a big part of those stories and memories. He will be missed and remembered fondly.
