“ Knew Bill (almost my same age) for some years in Plymouth, Wi, after moving back there in 1970. Until he just announced one day that he was moving to San Diego, where he originally became an ER doctor in a local hospital. A few years after moving to Phoenix, AZ in 1985, we had occasion to visit family in the San Diego area, and visited Bill at his El Cajon home. He loved the area, and the sailing it provided. He was happy. Had hoped to look him up again now (2021), but am saddened to hear of his too-early death. Although it may be too many years after his passing for his family to see this, please accept my condolences if you do. Ken & Cindy Pfrang

“ I was a classmate of Bill's in grade school. Although I lost contact with him after that, I very often thought back to the fun we had as a group. When I last heard about Bill he was in Plymouth. I since moved to Texas was never able to renew our friendship. My very sincere condolences to his family.

“ Sally and boys, it was terrible receiving this notice in the mail when I have been thinking for the past couple of years how I need to get up and see you two. I lost the phone numbers for you guys when I lost my daytimer a few months ago, and directory assistance doesn't have the number. Please send via email so I can call. I can't tell you how sad this makes me. My deepest condolences to you all. Love to you. Mike

“ Sally,

How terrible to receive the sad news of Bill's passing in yesterday's mail. We have very fond memories of good times spent together on Patten Lake with the two of you. It seemed for a while that each time we came up to the cabin Bill had acquired yet another car. This always made us smile. A gadget guy, Bill always seemed to have the right tool on hand and was happy to loan it to us for our endless weekend repairs. Bill had a great gusto for life and we will cherish the memories that we have of him. Sally, you've been so great to keep in touch with us after we sold our cabin and moved her to Colorado...please continue to do so. Until we meet again, our love and prayers. “ To the Family of Dr. Treviranus;

You do not know me, But your loved one was my doctor, in the early 70's at the Plymouth Clinic. I adored him. Was sad to see him move to California at the time. He lived a few doors from us off Fairview Drive in Plymouth.

Was not aware he was ill and had moved back to Wisconsin.

Sincere sympathy to you.

“ Sally, I do not know if you remember me, but my mother Lina Allmann was a close friend of your parents. I express my sympathy to you on the loss of your husband. Mom talked about you often as she remembered you growing up and your years in Plymouth.

Lina passed away at 99 years and I was blessed to have her that long and for her to be able to live at the homestead all her life.

Best to you and your family and your parents.
